far-out person I've ever met.
I really do hope you decide to go to San Diego this summer.

Before man
Everything
River, Sky, Mud
the Eagle the Rose like Hebe, waiting.

Presence

Before man
everything
to revere, to fertilize to develop or poison and ravage.

Presence' Presents

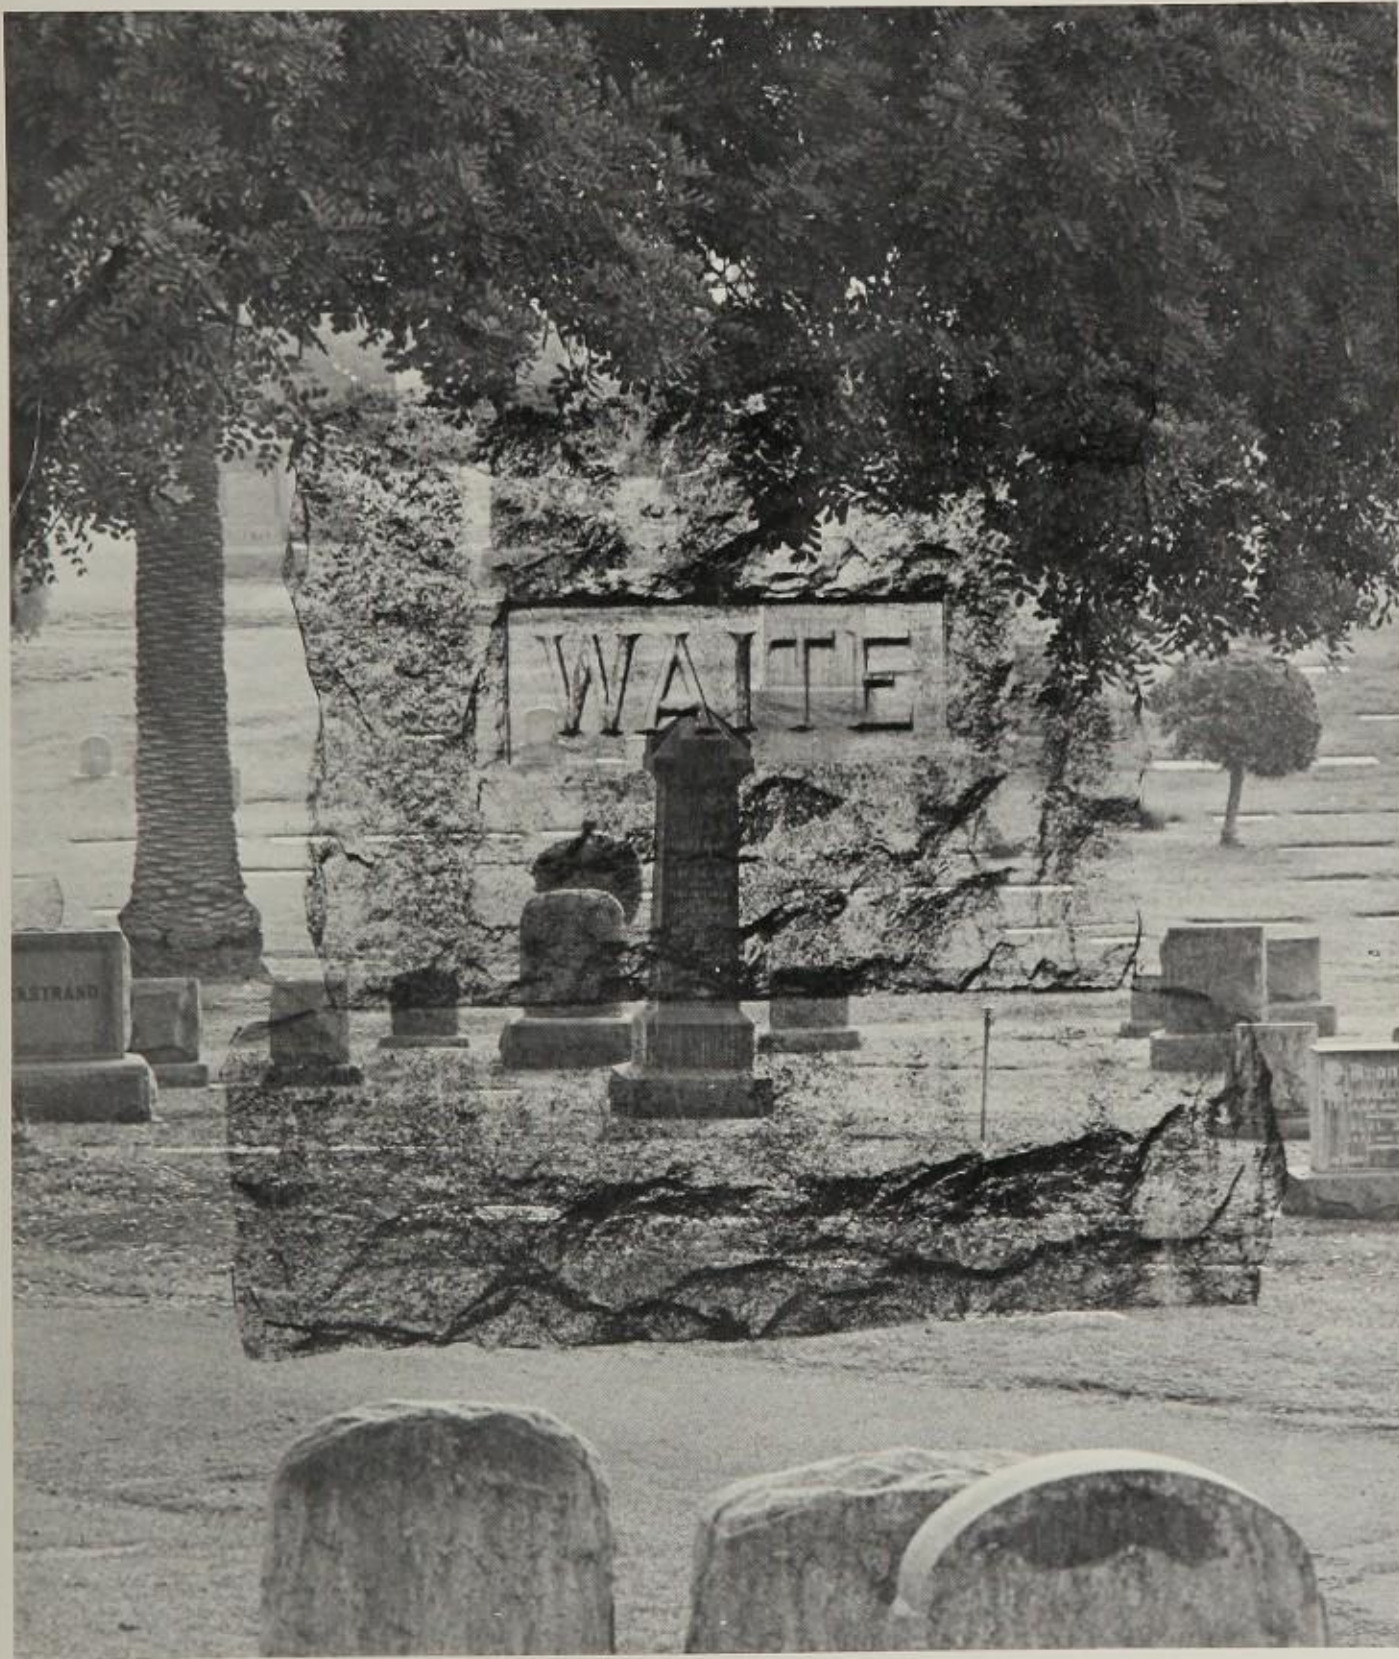

Before man
everything is sound on sound speed on speed
no dead end street unreal, unreal.

Presence Passed

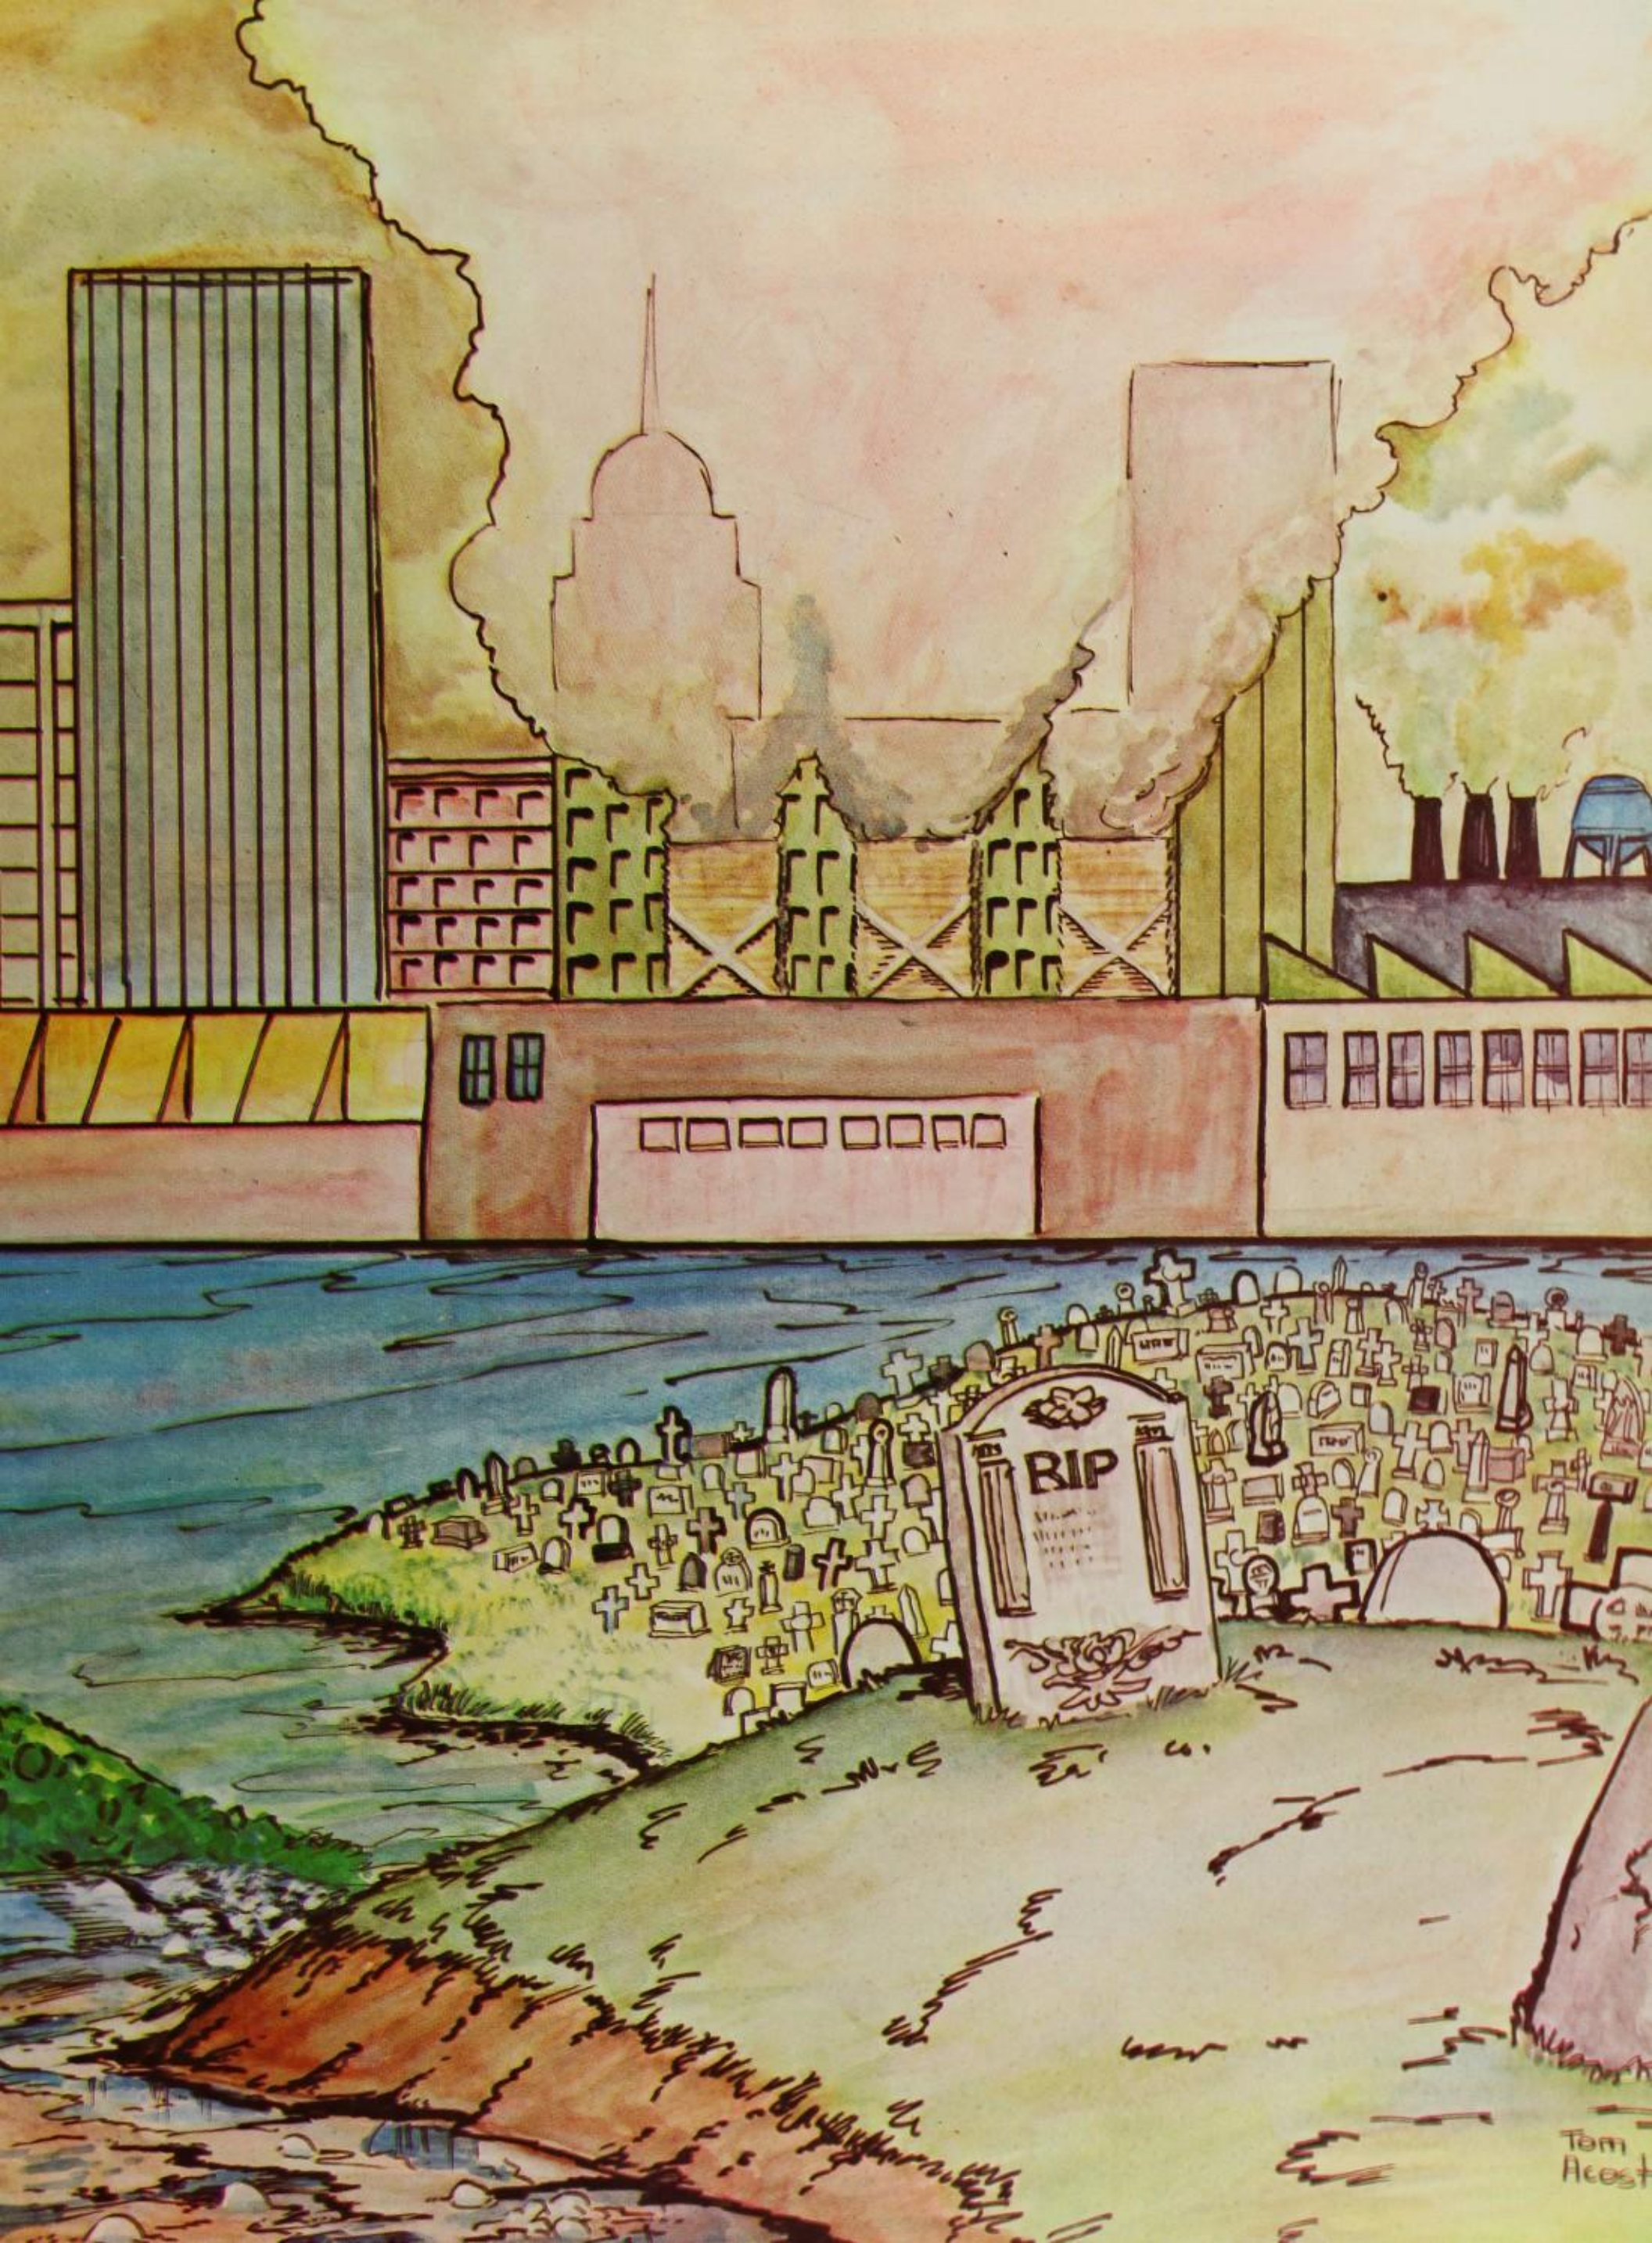

Before Man . . .

Protoplasm and microscopes Nuclei and isotopes, Science test set for today,
My worries just won't go away!

All last night so bleak and dreary I studied on the Molecular Theory.
While the hours slowly passed, I only thought of chloroplast.
Will this horror never end Or will it go on 'til heaven knows when?!

My teacher glaring down at me, I know right now I got a "C" In the trash my test will go.
And then no one will ever know!!

SENIOR MESSAGE

Our Annual this year culminates three years of an experience which has carried with it all the problems of today's society but also some very significant contributions. These contributions by the Class of '72 to the solution of social problems and of the growth of our school have been important to me.

I want very much to extend to every person in the senior class my best wishes for whatever the future may bring. I also hope sincerely that you can use this Annual to recall all the positive experiences that you have been privileged to have while a student at San Geronio High School.

Congratulations to this year's Annual staff for putting together something new and different.

Special guest speaker — Rosalio Munoz

A recent and increasingly familiar event at San G has been the Chicano Forum.

Basically, the forums are aimed at informing the Chicano high school student of the problems and changes faced by the Mex-American in today's world. The values of education, social and political awareness is emphasized throughout the Forum.

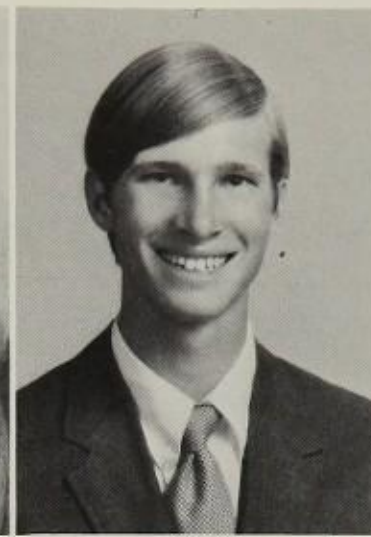

The program is presented through films and invited speakers. This year we were honored to present two very special speakers, Miss Ester Estrada and Mr. Rosalio Munoz. Miss Estrada has been an active voice in San Bernardino's Mex-American community. Mr. Munoz has received wide attention as the first Chicano ASB President at U.C.L.A. and co-chairman of the Chicano Moratorium Committee.

*T*hough I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become as sounding bronze, or a tinkling cymbal.

And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing.

And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself; is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemingly, seeketh not its own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Love never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge; it shall vanish away.

For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

For now we see in a mirror, darkly; but then, face to face; now I know in part, but then shall I know even as also I am known.

And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

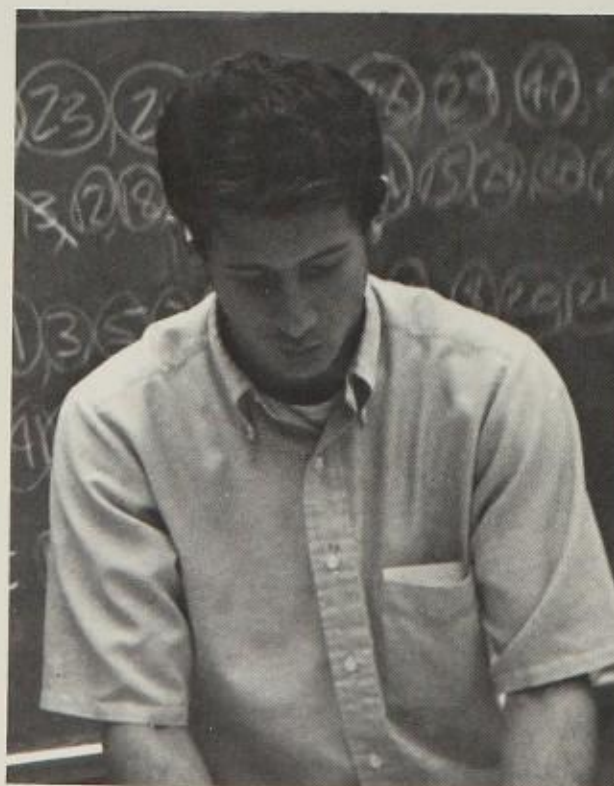

I Corinthians 13:1-13

Soft Rain,
 gently massage my brain Natures Hand
 slowly still the fevered pain

Wash the salty sometimes bitter tears of a sorrowful child and many lonely years Wishing many times that it were balmy to feel the sun entering into mind Knowing it could never happen Without the presence of a smile Then resign your fate to Natures long, impatient wait — till Dawn.

Stand like a statue in a park rain stains, rusty tears disappear in the dark — of sleep

Like many things we perceive They're all so superficial but they go so very deep Only eyes for them to see a shadow from a sparkle in the mind through solemn eyes Love is blind
 Green trees and Blue sky are hidden,
 to truth seeking why

The whisper of Nature, dear, unheard through silent sobbing tears it sounds so very far from the hysterical weeping of a sad,
 and lonely heart.

A Creation of Experience

Looking into the lacy roadmapped lines of an old woman's face A Delicately etched piece of artwork created over the Quarters of a Century;
 I feel like an amateur sculpture that must be added to and redone
 Time and again to achieve
 The Individual Masterpiece that The Aged Possess.

Laura Mortensen

And then suddenly when you do not know the mist will begin to surround you.
And you will travel
to a far off land.
The beauty will astound you.

Gerry K. Percy 72

Close your eyes, so gently now and place your hand in mine.
For we can use, the love we have to ride the winds of time.

"Let us float up endlessly" in our minds we sing.
"Through star-lit skies, that shine of love and help us feel so free."

Come with me, and I'll take you to this place of deep, dream, blue.
Where thoughts and hopes, of you and I will suddenly come true.

Yes there, you will see everything and understand with eyes.
And you will be, everywhere and know the reasons why.

For all of this, can be so true as truth it will seem.
Let imagination, be your guide and real it will be.

So real, and, so true our stars of love will be.
Please come, and stand with me On The Threshold of a Dream.

Gerry K. Percy 72

Joe Lopez 74

She was a child of the times, dreamy-eyed, reaching for the moon and getting a handful of stars to sprinkle in their eyes while glazing their minds with the sweetness of her thoughts The sun kissed her honey hair melting the warmth that seemed to radiate all about her dripping its sugary wishes into a pool of once-forgotten thoughts, re-incarnated from the past.
She floated across the night, illuminating the sky with a fiery glow that blinded their eyes and opened their minds to a peaceful reality.
A goddess of the morning, she steals away on the frozen breath of the night never to be forgotten

but remembered by no one.

What is this thing that people call War?
Are we coming to the end? Can there be anymore?
What is this thing that people call war?
Will it help anyone? Will it make me feel good?
Do I act any different than the way that I should?
Is it right here where I live each day?
Or is it somewhere else far away?
Is it like school, where you sit and wait?
Or is it all different, and does it deal with hate?
How can I tell if it's right or wrong?
How many will it take, and for how long?
Some say that it's good, and it ought to be done.
And others say it's the thing that they shun.
What can we do? Does anyone know?
Or do we just sit and watch the show?
Are we coming to the end? Can there be anymore?
What is this thing that people call war?

Lights,
the colour Rainbow drift kissing flowers and making the river swift and floating flowers kiss the sky
the gently fluttering, graceful Butterfly
no longer fly into the night using the Bat's
and Devil's eye

Golden Reeds
and Cattails perched the Sylvan Stream wrestle, grope and lurch into nooks, through crannies filling the void emptying and sustaining all in the same noise Eternally love as Robins Sing and colour greets the Sun's awakening ring not in alarm
but of gentle things

Spirit of the night fetched in gold and frozen flight
 Carry the ghost of lifes repast a nightgown in Moonlight
 a shadow cast in a hallway porter through the looking glass mysterious nuance of the waxed death mask

Golden heart of weathered stone
 face of innocence a smile ingrown painful for the idle id so strives the golden road to rid — yourself of the sun
 even though it's hid.
 Gentle moribund
 weary at the end mellow in a cold soul smelling of decadent bones crouch to bend the neck and instead of a Glovers end your smile is struck when you're dead.

i am alone.
my thoughts are isolated from the tears and touches of the world . . .

a lone ivory column lost in a sea of flashing, laughing exchanges of sound . . .

i sob silently tears wrenching my heart my soul writhing in the dull grayness of silence . . .

i ache
for you to reach out and touch me.

Times a changing going slow Green trees, red sunset, the dirt trail grows — on into the distance.
 Walk the march of slaves in chains frown the face of those who gave, Blue tennis shoes on black asphalt bounce in the rythm of a happy walk

 Towns and streets lined with parking meters Put in a dime and go to sleep with a hat for a shade and a gas mask to breathe

 Seethe of tiredness, echo through the veins, feel the painful throb
 of a Living Brain!
 and in the due time natures prepares to bloom awareness into one who cares.

 Bed time monsters willow and float on ceilings, in corners searching for throats to strangle in mirth the degenerate soul.

Faculty

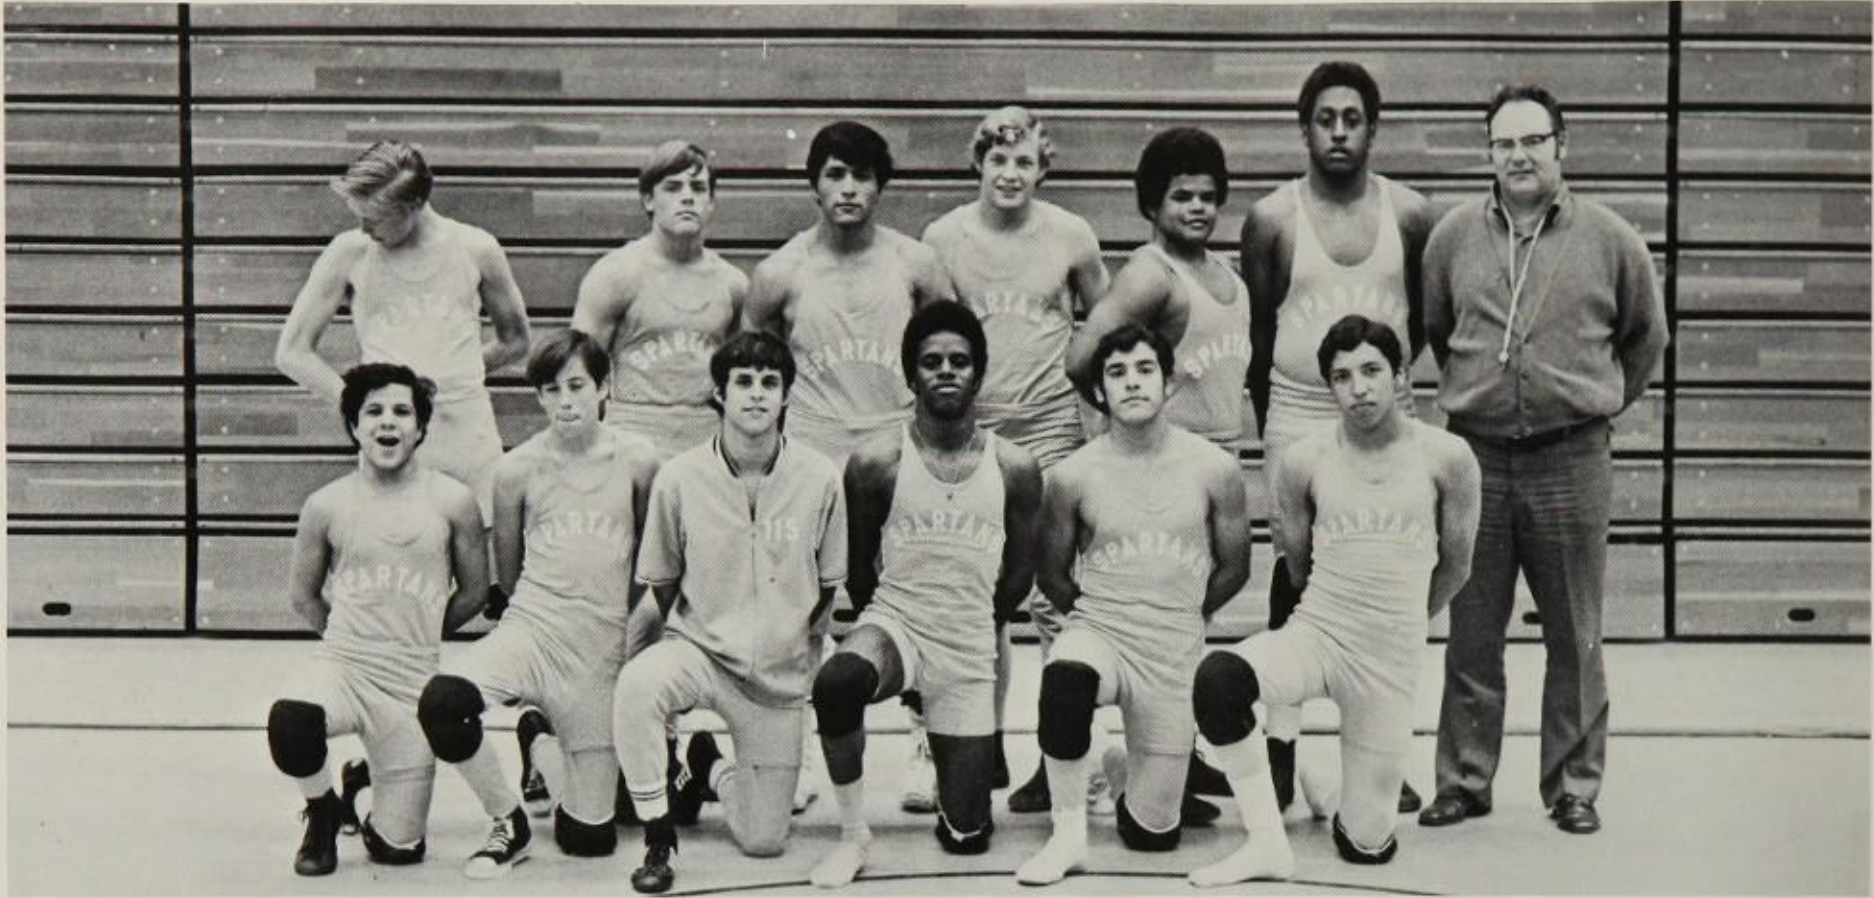

This year the Donkey Basketball game was more exciting than ever. Even though the students lost, it was still fun. A cheer went up when Pearl Berteaux ran on to the court. It was the first time a female has played on the students team. She may have had trouble getting on the donkey, but like the rest of the players she did a fine job.

YEAR 1972

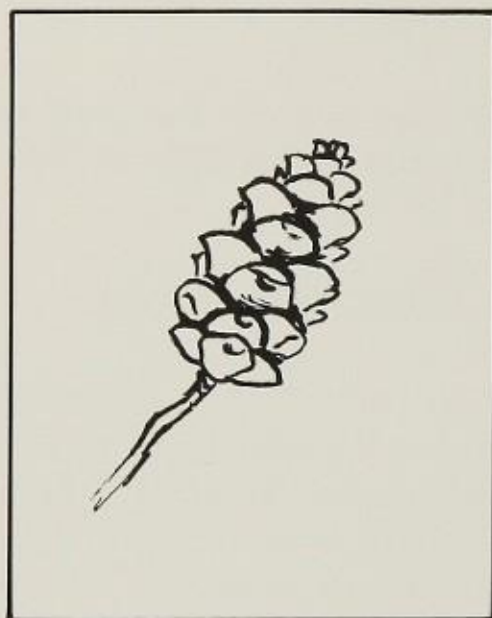

Dear Class of 1972, San Geronio High School

Again, our Compliments to Officers, Members and the fine Staff that has kept LOYALTY — SPIRIT — SCHOLARSHIP in the Number 1 spot for the Class of 1972. Now a thought for the future.

AS YOU THINK YOU TRAVEL

As you think, you travel: and as you love, you attract. You are today where your thoughts have brought you: you will be tomorrow where your thoughts take you. You can not escape the result of your thoughts, but you can endure and learn, can accept and be glad. You will realize the vision, not the ideal wish, of your heart, be it base, or be it beautiful, or a mixture of both, for you will always gravitate towards that which you secretly must love. Into your hands will be placed the exact result of your thoughts; you will receive that which you earn, no more, no less. Whatever your present environment may be you will fall, remain, or rise with your thoughts, your vision, your ideal. You will become as small as your controlling desire; as great as your dominant aspiration. The trip is at your expence. Straight ahead.
